Directions: Cut out each of the garland strips. Tape or glue the two ends of the first strip together. Thread the second strip through the first and glue or tape the two ends to create a chain. Repeat this process until your holiday garland paper chain is the perfect length. For a winter welcome, hang the finished garland in your home or around your front door.

nickjr.com © 2013 Viacom International Inc.