

What's In The Box?

One day, Mailbox dropped off this big box for Steve.
Everybody wanted to know what was in the box.

"We'll use our imagination to figure it out."

Slippery imagined there was a boat and a toy fish inside the box.

Periwinkle imagined dragons, trolls, and goblins. It was an amazing adventure.

Tickey imagined the box was full of numbers that she could count.

Blue imagined the box was full of party things, just right for throwing a party. But do you know what was really in the box?

Another box that can be anything you imagine it to be!

THE END
